

26th December, 2025

PRESS STATEMENT

COMEDIAN JAYMO YULE MSEE'S CONVERSION TO ISLAM IS POLITICAL

NAIROBI, KENYA - The Atheists In Kenya Society has taken note of the recent public declaration by Comedian Jaymo Yule Msee regarding his conversion to Islam, occurring in the early stages of political realignments ahead of the 2027 General Elections.

While every individual has a constitutional right to freedom of religion and belief, we believe that Comedian Jaymo has strategically altered his religious identity in preparation for the 2027 general elections. This is a classic case of the instrumentalisation of religion for electoral gain.

Kenya is a secular State under Article 8 of the Constitution. Political leadership must be grounded in ideas, integrity, policy proposals, and respect for constitutional governance—not religious affiliation or performative faith displays intended to appeal to particular voting blocs.

Sincerely,

Harrison Mumia
President, Atheists In Kenya Society

